

FEARED LITTLE WAIF MAY DIE

Child Found on Doorstep 'Is Dangerously Ill.

MURDER MAY BE CHARGED

POLICE WILL MAKE EFFORT TO ARREST THE PARENTS.

A WARRANT charging murder may be issued for the persons who left a baby boy on the doorstep of Mrs. Fair, who lives on East street. The child is very ill, and physicians regard his death as almost certain.

Shortly after 10 o'clock last Saturday night, the police department was notified that a baby had been found upon Mrs. Fair's doorstep with absolutely no clue as to the identity of the child, or where he had been left. A member of the family, so the report stated, had gone to the front door and had stumbled against a tiny bundle lying on the step. Lifting it, he carried it into the room with no thought of its contents.

Spacially wrapped in soft white garments was found a healthy boy, apparently about four hours old. No one knew how long the child had been lying on the doorstep, but no one had left the room since early in the evening, and it is possible that it was placed there shortly after its birth.

Child Is Taken In.

It was taken into the house and carefully attended for a few days when it was given into the care of Mrs. Margaret Brox, 140 South Eighth west street. Mrs. Brox had heard of the finding of the boy and had expressed a desire to take the child and raise it. She has watched tenderly over the babe since he was placed in her care and had attended to every want. He grew and was strong and healthy until Friday, when he became nervous and sickly. A physician was summoned, but in spite of all skill he has grown constantly worse until yesterday his condition was so precarious that practically no hope of recovery is entertained. The boy may live a few days, declare the physicians, but even that is very doubtful. His death is likely to occur at any time.

The immediate cause of the illness of the child is said to be blood poisoning, the results of the criminal neglect to which he was subjected by his parents. No attention whatever was paid to the child at the time of his birth, further than a few minutes required to wrap it in the clothes in which it was found. The attentions that are necessary at child birth were neglected for this reason, say the physicians, its death will likely result.

May be a Murder.

In the event of its death, a warrant will be issued, charging murder in the first degree, and every effort will be made by the officers to find the parents of the child or any others who may have been implicated in the matter. The police department has been notified of the critical condition of the boy and officers are awaiting the result of the illness.

"I had heard of the finding of the babe," said Chief Paul last night, "but have only heard recently of its dangerous condition. If the boy dies I can assure you that every effort will be made by the police department to find out who is responsible. That sort of thing has been going on long enough in this city and should be stopped, even if murder is not committed. It has been seven days since the child was found and the time that has elapsed would necessarily be a handicap to the officers in their efforts to ferret out the mystery. But we shall watch the case with a great deal of interest and should death result from the criminal neglect and carelessness of its parents, we will do all we can to find those responsible and prosecute them to the limit of the law."

BOREAS SENDS A PUFF

Cold Snap Drives Straw Hats
Out and Resurrects the Overcoats.

Many were the dreams of local residents Friday night about the north pole, icebergs and other things, to find on awakening that there was some cause for such nightmares. While the dreams were of an general, the temperature had fallen to such an extent as to make them horribly realistic.

Dives were made into closets and trunks, and overcoats, heavy underwear and the like were resurrected, while the straw hat and spring suit were shelved.

The thermometer continued dropping with astonishing rapidity. The overhanging clouds greatly assisted, for when Old Sol made an effort to put in his usual appearance at 5 a. m. the clouds managed to get into his way, and Sol never had another look-in till late in the afternoon.

While the thermometer dropped considerably during Friday night, it was no marker to its drop yesterday morning. At daybreak the mercury dangled round 19 degrees, steadily falling till noon, when it registered 17 degrees. This was 23 degrees colder than the corresponding hour on Friday. At 6 o'clock there was a hailstorm, amid sunshine.

Compliment is offered in Section Director Murdoch's opinion that the cold snap will be over today. The weather man said last night that the snap accompanied the storm, which is expected to blow over Sunday with a pleasant day—somewhat cool, however.

RELEASED FROM PRISON.

Pardon Board Grants Two Pardons and One Parole.

The state board of pardons met yesterday and granted two pardons and one parole. Two pardons and one parole were also denied. Those to whom pardons were granted are: Pat Welch, fined $500 in Carbon county on June 15, 1901, for assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm, was committed to the state prison for non-payment of the fine, and Eli C. Kendall sentenced to three years for robbery at Provo in February, 1901. A parole was granted to Francis Hagedorn, who was convicted of murder in the second degree at Beaver in November, 1900, and sentenced to sixteen years.

Pardons were denied Joshua Lewis, who is serving a two years' term, and Hans P. Hansen, who is serving eighteen months. A parole was denied Benjamin Forman, serving fifteen months for grand larceny, and in the life sentence for murder, a continuance was ordered for one month.

OFFICERS CATCH TWO THIEVES WHO HELD UP AND ROBBED WOMAN AT MURRAY

Two daring thieves who robbed a woman while she was driving through the principal street of Murray yesterday, were captured and landed in the Murray jail by Deputy Sheriff Mauss. The thieves, who were caught with their booty on them, gave their names as Larsen and Meyers.

The name of the woman robbed could not be learned last night, but it appears that she was driving through Murray yesterday afternoon in her buggy, when Larsen and Meyers, who were strolling along the road, hopped on the rear of the buggy and asked if they might ride a short distance. The

As a result of children playing with a loaded gun, a little 5-year-old lad by the name of Goodrich, who lives near Brighton, had his left arm shot almost off yesterday. Later in the day the arm was amputated at the Holy Cross hospital, and the child is getting along as nicely as could be expected now.

It seems that Mr. Goodrich, the father, had a shotgun which he kept in the barn for the purpose of shooting hawks. He left the weapon loaded and hid it away in the hay loft. The 5-year-old child and an older brother went into the loft yesterday morning and it was not long before the loaded weapon was discovered by them. They were playing with it, and the older brother had it in his hands when one

EARNEST PLEA SAVED "NASTY JACK" FROM HAVING HIS LONG HAIR CUT

"Nasty Jack" Morrison's black, Samson-like locks yesterday were the subject of a long and eloquent plea for leniency and probably saved the cripple from serving a sentence in the state penitentiary. When "Nasty Jack," who has been found guilty of selling liquor to the Indians, was yesterday brought before Judge Marshall to receive sentence, Colonel M. M. Kalign, attorney for the offender, asked the court if his client was to be sent to the penitentiary he would consider it an especial favor if his hair were not cut. The attorney explained that the hair covered a large scalp wound, whose pain without it would be intolerable. The long locks, the attorney explained, also were a preventive of neuralgia, with which "Nasty Jack" was troubled before he let the hair grow.

Colonel Kalign's words seemed to have some effect on Judge Marshall, for the latter sentenced the aged cripple to only four months in the county jail and imposed a fine of $100 and costs. A sigh of relief escaped the prisoner when he heard the sentence pronounced, for it is said he would rather part with his life than the locks.

DESPITE THE RAINS AND THAWS, GREAT SALT LAKE REFUSES TO RISE

The Great Salt lake is remaining stationary, despite the recent heavy rainfall and the melting of the snow in the mountains. When the semi-monthly reading took place May 15 the lake registered four inches below zero. This is the same as two weeks and a month ago, in direct contrast to the corresponding date a year ago, when the water was two feet higher.

According to reports from Saltair, the water is gradually warming up, reaching the comfortable average of 50 degrees during the warm spell of last week.

"MAJE," THE INTELLIGENT, IS DEAD, AND THERE IS MOURNING IN SALT LAKE

All the "rounders," policemen, hack drivers and messenger boys knew Major, or "Maje," as he was called, for short, when "Hoodoo Bill" owned him. And there is grief among the all-night fraternity since Major passed away.

The word was received yesterday that the famous spaniel, who had the reputation of knowing more than all the dog family in Salt Lake, had finally given up life's struggle in the Tintic district.

"Maje" had a sad history. He was born up in the Fourth district, but had lived only two or three years when he was taken to the Tintic district, where he was kept in a cage, and finally given up life's struggle in the Tintic district.

FIGHT OVER PRINCIPAL

Patrons of Scott School Hold a Lively Meeting—Cummings
the Issue.

The resignation of O. W. Carlson as principal of the Scott school in district 24 has precipitated a warm contest for the position, in which the patrons of the school are taking an active part. Two of the most prominent applicants for the place were D. F. Cummings and Taylor Brockbank. Both had warm supporters and it looked very much as though Mr. Cummings would be appointed for the position, when, Friday night, a mass meeting was called at the school house on Fourteenth South street.

During the course of the meeting the anti-Cummings faction introduced the following resolution:

"Whereas, We conceive that education is of such vital importance to the child that he should have the best, and nothing but the best; and

"Whereas, Mr. D. F. Cummings, who is applying for a position as principal at Scott's school, is not satisfactorily competent; and

"Whereas, Three other teachers are woman had her purse containing $38 in cash and a check for $150 lying on the seat of the car, and the men sped it. Without warning, one of them seized the purse from the seat and the two men, sliding off the buggy, made their escape by running across the fields.

The woman drove back to the Murray drug store and notified Deputy Mauss of the affair. The officer started in pursuit and after an hour or more of a weary chase, overtook and captured the men. They were landed in the Murray jail over night and will probably be brought here today.

The loaded gun struck the smaller boy in the left arm just above the elbow, passing across his chest, wounding his right arm. Some of the shot also found their way into his left leg. The left arm was left hanging only by strips of flesh. The position in which the child stood was all that saved his life, for the full charge of shot passed across his chest, and had he been standing two inches or more further forward it would undoubtedly have passed through his heart.

The child was brought immediately to town and taken to the hospital, Drs. Mayo and McElroy amputated the arm and last night the child was sleeping easily. The doctors state that he will recover.

George Morrison was brought down from Gold Mountain Thursday suffering from a badly bruised leg, which had been caught between a sawlog and wagon wheel. Fortunately no bones were broken.

WILL IMPOUND BEAR RIVER.

Hercules Power Company Has a Big Scheme.

Logan, May 17.—Manager E. P. Bacon of the Hercules Power company has returned from Bear Lake county, Idaho, where he has been making preliminary surveys for diverting Bear river into the Great Salt Lake. The Hercules people have made the necessary surveys, locations, applications, etc., to make of the river a reservoir for the surplus waters of Bear river. The water, it is understood, will be diverted from Bear river at a point just east of Dingle, Idaho, and will be carried through a tunnel, connected by an outlet with Bear lake. Dikes will be constructed across the valley at the mouth of the river, and the water thus held in reserve until it is needed, when it will be turned out to the river again, to be used for irrigation and power purposes.

COMPLICATION OF SUITS.

Spanish Fork Persons Tangled in the Law.

Provo, May 17.—Erastus C. Hopler of Spanish Fork has commenced suit against Thomas Llewellyn and his wife, Florence Mabel Llewellyn, asking that a deed from Thomas Llewellyn to Florence Mabel Llewellyn for 30 acres of land, allegedly fraudulent, and that an assignment by Mrs. Llewellyn to Mrs. Llewellyn of a capital stock in Spanish Fork Irrigation company be declared null and void, and also that $500 paid to Mrs. Llewellyn by her husband be declared to be held in trust by her for him, that all of the property of the plaintiff be subject to a judgment of $500 obtained by plaintiff against defendant. Thomas Llewellyn on May 21 last, on a complaint charging Llewellyn with beating plaintiff.

Hopler alleges that the transfers of the property were made after the beginning of the suit, on which he was awarded judgment, and for the purpose of preventing the collection of any judgment.

This is not the only suit against Mr. Llewellyn. Mrs. Florence Mabel Llewellyn, his codefendant in the above case, commenced suit for divorce against him about a month ago, charging cruelty.

This was after she had secured the property which Mr. Hopler claims was fraudulently conveyed, and that suit may tend to complicate matters in the present suit.

Gentlemen:—"I think that a woman naturally shrinks from making her troubles public, but restored health has meant so much to me that I feel for the sake of other suffering women it is my duty to tell what Peruna has done for me."

"I suffered for five years with uterine irregularities, which brought on hysteria and made me a physical wreck. I tried doctors from the different schools of medicine, but without any perceptible change in my condition. In my despair I called on an old nurse, who advised me to try Peruna, and promised good results if I would persist and take it regularly. I thought this was the least I could do and procured a bottle. I knew as soon as I began taking it that it was affecting me differently from anything I had used before, and so I kept on taking it. I kept this up for six months, and steadily gained strength and health, and when I had used fifteen bottles I considered myself entirely cured. I am a grateful, happy woman to-day."

FEMALE WEAKNESS IS PELVIC CATARRH.

Always Half Sick are the Women who Have Pelvic Catarrh.

Catarrh of any organ, if allowed to progress, will affect the whole body. Catarrh without nervousness is very rare, but pelvic catarrh and nervousness go hand in hand.

What is so distressing a sight as a poor half-sick, nervous woman, suffering from the many almost unbearable symptoms of pelvic catarrh? She does not consider herself ill enough to go to bed, but she is far from being able to do her work without the greatest exhaustion. This is a very common sight and is almost always due to pelvic catarrh.

It is worse than foolish for so many women to suffer year after year with a disease that can be permanently cured. Peruna cures catarrh permanently. It cures old chronic cases as well as a slight attack, the only difference being in the length of time that it should be taken to effect a cure.

Miss Nellie Weaver, 2081 South Ninth street, Philadelphia Pa., writes:

"Having heard and read of Peruna, when my system became so run down that I thought I would never regain my health, I decided to give Peruna a trial. I gained in health and strength and consider Peruna the best remedy on the market."

NEILLIE WEAVER.

Mary F. Bartholomew, St. Francisville, Ill., says:

"About twelve years ago I was afflicted with female trouble (pelvic catarrh). I doctored with several skillful physicians, but kept getting worse until I became bedfast. I was in this condition about two years. Under the attendance of four physicians. I got no better during this time. Finally, looking over Dr. Hartman's female book I concluded I would write for advice. I am not sorry I did so. I owe my life to Dr. Hartman and Peruna. My friends and neighbors never expected to see me well again."
